Today's Agenda

- ✓ Why the world needs Executive Christian Coaches
- ✓ What are the benefits of becoming an ECC?
- ✓ How do I become an ECC?

45 min

The world is full of God-given potential that's just waiting to be unleashed!

All things are created twice.

There is a mental (first) creation, and a physical (second) creation.

– Dr. Stephen R. Covey

The world needs expanded imagination!

- ✓ A hopeful future
- ✓ Bigger dreams
- ✓ Clearer goals
- ✓ Designed actions

Imagination must be combined with hard work!

- ✓ Knowing what to do
- ✓ Commitment to follow through
- ✓ Accountability
- ✓ Encouragement

As an Executive Christian Coach, you help others:

gain greater clarity and conviction for a meaningful dream,

expand their options for turning the dream into reality,

boost their motivation for taking the necessary steps.

- A medical doctor in the Midwest coaches her patients to make real changes.
- A grandmother in Kenya coaches a group of women to know their true identity in Christ.
- A pastor in New York coaches members of his church live more fully.
- A young man near Portland earns a living coaching executives and business teams.
- A retired minister on the East Coast uses coaching to earn some extra money while doing what he loves most: helping younger ministers.
- A young mother in London grew her confidence as a coach and is now boldly enrolling clients who benefit greatly from her coaching.
- A stay at home dad in Northern California gets to help people all over the world while still providing much needed care for his children.

Why Become an Executive Christian Coach?

- ✓ Sense of fulfillment by helping others
- ✓ Stream of income while being of service
